Henryville Correctional Facility Recommended for ACA Accreditation

Henryville, Indiana (October 23, 2008)—American Correctional Association (ACA) auditors recommended Henryville Correctional Facility for accreditation today. Henryville was audited over a three-day process that consisted of ensuring compliance with mandatory and non-mandatory standards, in conjunction with the overall inspection of the operation and sanitation of facility. The audit team consisted of correctional professionals Lester Young from Oklahoma, Cynthia Jevyak from Florida, and Fletcher Morgan from Florida.

The facility was in compliance with 100% of all 51 mandatory standards and was in compliance with 393 of 396 non-mandatory standards, for a final score of 99.2%. Mr. Lester Young, the chairman of the audit, was impressed with the sanitation and orderly operation of the facility. Mr. Young also added that the ACA folders were in good working order and staff were very professional in the performance of their daily duties.

"I applaud the efforts of the Henryville staff for their diligence and ensuring that the facility was ready for the ACA audit. It goes without saying how proud I am of the staff and their cooperation during this time," said Superintendent Alan Chapman.
